Inspection is mandatory when travelling with HAM radio equipment (handheld HAM radio equipment is exempted from inspection).*

Applicable if a special call sign is requested.*

Take notice that the OUR (SWIFT standard field 71A) expense regulation method should be used to avert delays in the application process due to (most commonly cause) insufficient funds transferred. To avoid shortage in any circumstance (deduction of international transfer charges/intermediary bank charges, exchange fluctuations when transfer is originated in another foreign currency than USD. etc.) explicitly instruct your financial institution that final beneficiary must receive the amount of incurred application costs (all transfer costs are incurred by sender/originator of transfer).
